

Aaron O'Connor Photography

Family Portrait Photography 2014

I take pride in producing high quality images, capturing those spontaneous moments often missed by others. I take a relaxed approach and try to make everyone feel comfortable in front of the camera.

All images are taken on high quality digital equipment. Reprints and or enlargements can be printed as colour, sepia or black and white.

High resolution files on DVD can be purchased for an additional fee of $250

See my web site www.aaronoconnorphotography.com for more examples of my work.
